3-day experience: Practical, challenging, impactful

The challenge: Authorities are mobilising resources to solve a developing crisis, and they have called you. Join an international team of specialists, tackle the problem at the root and support the action of international organisations to ensure its resolution.

What you will be doing:

- Confront real situations and experiment;
- Understand how to position yourself as a leader;
- Realise what impact you have on the group;
- Increase your self-awareness as a leader.

"We were in a real situation."

"The practical experience helped ground the principles much further than any abstract theory could."

"The situations allow you to react naturally and instinctively to the environment."

"Your own leadership experience means you created challenges that were completely relevant for me to learn, it makes the training very valuable."

"It's easier to learn when you've just witnessed the evidence."

Verbatim collected from foundations pack participants.

Trainer & Coach profile

Thibaut Legendre

I have always been fascinated by Leadership. It took me time to make progress. In 25 years, I experimented, learned and grew through a wide variety of opportunities, from the ops room of a submarine to the boardroom of a software company. At North90 I help young leaders to accomplish meaningful steps on their journey, through practice, and group work, in an approach inspired by 20 years of Gestalt work.

Experience

1994 – Naval Academy (France)
1997 – Telecoms officer / OOD Submarine
2001 – Commanding Officer
2003 – Recruitment director
2006 – Senior Consultant
2008 – Head of Pre Sales
2009 – Head of Product
2011 – Head of Sales Operations
2014 – General Manager
2016 – VP Mergers and Acquisitions

Assemble a team, establish credibility, plan and brief, delegate, conduct action.

Assert your authority, respond to a crisis, achieve difficult results.

Manage remotely, manage by influence, protect your people, buy/Sell a business, seek funding.

Manage diverse teams, manage leaders, turn a business around... Inspire and manage stakeholders.
